

Ashley Morgan is a trial attorney who has represented clients in a range of civil litigation cases, including personal injury/tort, business divorces, construction, DTPA claims, and property disputes. She is a competitive and zealous advocate for her clients.

Ashley obtained her Juris Doctorate from Baylor Law School. While in law school, Ashley competed in mock trial and moot court. She was a finalist in the “Mad Dog” mock trial competition. She served as President of the Baylor chapter of Student Animal Legal Defense Fund.

Ashley also has a Master’s Degree in Communication Studies and a Bachelor’s Degree in International Studies from Baylor. She was on scholarship and competed in policy debate while obtaining her undergraduate degree. She and her debate partner reached the Quarterfinals at the National Debate Tournament. Ashley coached debate and taught public speaking while in graduate school.

She is actively involved in the local and state bar. She is currently the Chair of the Animal Law Sections of the State Bar of Texas and the Austin Bar Association.