

Scotti Beam is the firm's most senior paralegal having helped the named partners begin their practice together in 2007. In 1982, Scotti began her professional career as a receptionist-runner for a small Austin law firm. Her responsibilities grew into those of legal secretary and legal assistant where she performed all aspects of support for partners and associates in the litigation setting. In 2013, Scotti studied for and received her certification as a Professional Paralegal from NALS. NALS has a strong heritage in the legal field and holds the honor of being the oldest association formed for legal support professionals. Scotti supports partners Charlie Cain and Ryan Chapple, as well as associates Taylor Romero, Chelsea Schell, and Brad Kloewer. Scotti not only has over 35 years' experience in the legal field, she is a valuable resource to the firm as its firm administrator. Scotti can be contacted at sbeam@cstrial.com.
